BOOKS

BEFORE KINDERGARTEN

Start your child's reading adventure today!

Build early literacy skills and create special moments with your child by joining our 1,000 Books Before Kindergarten program. The goal is simple: read 1,000 books together before your child starts school. Just one book a night adds up fast, 365 books in a year, and over 1,000 in three. It's not about the numbers, it's about the joy of reading and growing together.

365 Books
In One Year

730 Books
In Two Years

1,095 Books
In Three Years

The program is free and easy to join. Pick up your first animal-themed tracking sheet at the Library or download it online to start at home, no formal sign-up required.

BEWABON SHILLING - SEPTEMBER 12 TO OCTOBER 25, 2025

Opening Reception (Free Admission): Friday, September 12, 2025, 7:00 AM – 9:00 PM

Outdoor Plein Air Painting Event in Memorial Park with Bewabon Shilling (Free Admission):
Saturday, September 20, 10:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Derived from direct experiences of the land during plein air painting sessions, Bewabon Shilling's new paintings feature a visually rich exploration of colour, light, and landscape. As the eldest son of celebrated Ojibway artist Arthur Shilling, Bewabon is inspired by the people and places around his home studio in Rama First Nation on Lake Couchiching.

Bewabon Shilling, Field Series - Cadmium (detail), 2024. Oil on canvas.

NICHOLAS CROMBACH: XENOLITHIC

November 1 to December 6, 2025

Opening Reception (Free Admission):
Saturday, November 1, 2025, 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM

Nicholas Crombach's sculptural exhibition presents a world where natural and human materials exist in a state of entanglement, inviting viewers to consider how objects accumulate, persist, and transform over time.

Each sculpture in Xenolithic combines a range of cross-sectioned objects to provide an innovative perspective on the materials that surround us both as artifacts of the past and as evolving elements within our present landscape.

Nicholas Crombach, Cross Section I, 2024.
Found objects and found materials, steel, epoxy, construction adhesive.

DEBRA WRONZBERG

August 5 to October 31, 2025

Debra Wronzberg's recent paintings vibrate with colour and energy. The artist combines geometric forms with natural subjects to create her uniquely styled cityscapes, landscapes, and florals.

Debra Wronzberg, Red Canoe, 2025. Acrylic on canvas.

RAY MCNEICE AND MARGARET GRANDISON

November 4, 2025 to January 30, 2026

Ray McNeice and Margaret Grandison are long-standing champions of the arts in Stouffville. This special 2-person exhibition explores the artist's shared interest in plein air painting as a way of responding to the emotional resonance of the places they paint. Wonderfully composed paintings of familiar Stouffville landmarks will be featured as part of this exhibition.
